

WOMEN TO RACE IN 100-YARD DASH

Thirty-two Colleens from the Thirty-two Counties of Ireland to Try for Record.

The athletic fever now raging so violently in New York has communicated itself to the women, and as a result thirty-two blooming colleens will compete in a hundred-yard dash next Sunday at the games of the Kerryism, in Celtic Park. Each young woman represents a county in Ireland, and there will be some rare excitement during the race. The county that wins will have nothing too good for the girl that carries its colors to victory. The record recently made at Vassar is in danger.

Then, too, the Kerryism, who always present a fine bill of fare, will have three champion attractions, aside from the athletic features. Dermot O'Callaghan, the champion Irish piper, and William McGonagle, the champion Irish jig dancer, will show their mettle. Chauncey O'Leary, the popular Irish comedian, will referee the football match between those old-time rivals, Kerry and Tipperary, there will be another match kicked off between Cork and Waterford, after which a dancing platform will be erected in the middle of the field, and Irish jigs and reels will fill in until the reception begins in the big pavilion.

STARS FOR KERRYMEN'S OUTING.

DERMOT O'CALLAGHAN, Champion
IRISH PIPER.

CHANCEY O'LEARY,
Popular Irish Comedian.

WILLIAM MCGONAGLE, Champion
IRISH DANCER.

CONRIED'S SHOT IN OPERA WAR

Will Educate Recruits for Opera Chorus in School of Metropolitan.

Members of the Metropolitan Opera chorus, who are planning to enforce a "closed shop" next season, collided with two unwelcome items of news today. First came the announcement that Mr. Conried was to be received to-day by Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, who will confer on him the Order of the Iron Crown. In return for which Mr. Conried will give some time this summer an American operatic performance at the Vienna Imperial Opera.

Next came word that Gustav Hirschfeld had been engaged to manage the Metropolitan's new chorus school.

Word has been sent out that men and women with good voices will be received as applicants for class work between 6 and 7 o'clock tonight. Those accepted will receive instruction in the operatic repertoire and be given a chance to join the regular chorus.

It is distinctly intimated that the recruits are not to receive the old chorus, but those who remember Mr. Conried's advertisements during the strike last winter can read between the lines.

Ernest Goetzl, Mr. Conried's assistant, returned from San Francisco yesterday, where he arranged for the return of the $20,000 advance sale for the interrupted opera season.

SUICIDE THROUGH GRIEF.

Young Woman Who Mourned Dead
Mother Dies by Gas.

Florence M. Lee, twenty-eight years old, who kept house for her brother and a boarder at No. 412 St. Nicholas avenue, killed herself with gas last night in a fit of despondency over the death of her mother, who died last December.

Her brother said that she had been melancholy ever since their mother died and that the fits of despondency had been growing more frequent of late.

MAN GROUND TO DEATH BY CAR

Motorman Wanted to Commit
Suicide When Accident Happened.

William J. McKeever, of No. 444 Kosciuszko street, Brooklyn, was ground to death under the wheels of a car at Flatbush and Third avenues, Brooklyn, early to-day, and he died while a number of men, some of them in evening clothes, were trying to lift the heavy trucks from his body.

When the accident occurred, William Murphy, the motorman of the car, was so excited that he had to be controlled to keep him from committing suicide. Murphy and Michael Haggerty, the conductor, were both arrested. They were arraigned in the Butler Street Police Court to-day.

"THE MASQUERADER!"

"The Masquerader," a splendid romance of love, action and dual identity, by Katherine Cecil Thurston, author of "The Gambler," will begin in Saturday's Evening World. The first instalment will be issued in a special color supplement.

ACCUSED BY THREE OF BEING FIREBUG

Witnesses Declare Ringodino
Set Fire to His Flat Containing Many Families.

When Max Ringodino was arraigned in the Lee Avenue Police Court, Williamsburg, to-day he denied the assertions of three young men that they had seen him set fire to his home at No. 235 Hopkins street.

Inspector Flynn, of the Fire Marshal's office, said the three saw smoke coming from the windows of the second floor apartment occupied by Ringodino last night, and when they rushed into the place, found him making no effort to extinguish the blaze. Instead, they said, he told them to get out and mind their own business.

After putting out the fire the visitors notified the police, but by that time Ringodino had left the place. He was found by the Fire Marshal to-day at the home of a relative. Witnesses said that a fire had started in a clothes closet, and that the bed clothing in another room was also on fire.

At the same house five other families live, most of them having children. The firemen said the fire had had a good start; it would have been impossible to save the building.

LOOP-THE-LOOPER HAS BACK BROKEN.

PEORIA, May 17.—Arthur Holden, per- forming under the name of "Diavolo," had his back broken yesterday looping the loop on a bicycle.

The loop was of the "death trap" order and failed to work properly. Holden made the circuit perfectly, but when his bicycle descended it went through the trap and he was thrown forty feet. He was performing for the Mundy Carnival Company. His home is in Galesburg, Ill.

Frazin & Oppenheim

Associated Weavers and Manufacturers Department Store

Sixth Ave & 18th Street.

75c Batiste Corsets Friday at 39c

Bargain Day at the New Kind of a Store.

THE difference between the Weavers and Manufacturers' Department Store and other stores is that here the prices are half to one-third lower. And with this economical advantage nothing is sacrificed; style is here, quality is guaranteed, selections are complete.

Frazin & Oppenheim have created the Weavers and Manufacturers' Association.

It is composed of over a thousand mills and factories which agree to send to this store all of their samples, run of weaves, cancelled orders, surplus stocks, mill ends, etc. We in return furnish them with prompt remittances; they sell us goods at absolute cost or less, sacrificing profit for ready money. Visit the great economical store, at the southwest corner of 18th street and 6th avenue—the famous shoe corner that is NOW ALSO a department store.

$7 Stylish Summer Eton Suits at $4.

HIGH-CLASS garments, suits that sell regularly for $7 to $9. They are "out of the ordinary" at even their regular price, and at to-morrow's wonderful bargain price of $4 they are irresistible to any discriminating shopper who sees them. These dashing Eton Suits are the product of a certain celebrated customer's workrooms. However, he made too many, had an enormous lot on hand, and, being a member of our Manufacturers' Association, sold us the entire lot at 20% below cost. These suits go to you to-morrow at a figure considerably below the actual manufacturing cost.

$4 Daintily trimmed with wide silk and soutache braid. Vest of broadcloth in blue, reseda, white, gray, navy, Dashing new model shirts. The materials are all wool voiles and grenadines, grays, both light and dark Oxfords and shepherd's checks in brown and black, etc.

Smart $12 to $15 Silk Costumes at $9.95

DAINTY costumes that exactly delineate the very newest and most extravagant style ideas of this season. This delightful costume exhibit is a blending of the up-to-the-minute style with the quaint and charming colonial adoptions that costumes have put on this season's gowns. The waists have the elbow and three-quarter sleeves, and as for trimming—well, you must view them, for description is but a poor portrayal.

$9.95 Frills and furrows, tucks and plaits, with bits of lace or a brilliant buckle, or a row of buttons. The shirts, of course, are the very newest and most dashing circular model.

For colors the description begins with rose and goes through some twenty-odd, including Alice, baby blue, pink, violet, heliotrope, beige, gray, reseda, black, and green and white, black and white, blue and white, green and white and other checks.
